

Hear Our Winners and See Jackie Conduct

Saturday, May 27th will be a big night for the Guild!

Sophie Yang, first-place winner of the Young Artists' Competition in piano, and Sam Barrett, first-place winner in strings, will perform their winning selections at the NM Phil concert, "The Sounds of Freedom," at the Zoo. Roger Melone will conduct the orchestra.

The concert program, which begins at 8:00 p.m., will include many traditional patriotic songs to celebrate Memorial Day, as well as some classical repertoire, including the selections played by our winners. The Guild has sponsored the concert and will be recognized from the stage and by signage.

Purchase your ticket in advance and receive a special discount of 20% with the code JMYAC 1617. The discount will not apply if you purchase your ticket after Thursday, May 25th.

Purchase tickets in person at the NM Phil office, 3035 Menaul Blvd. NE #2, Albuquerque, NM 87107 or by calling their office at (505) 323-4343.

Lawn seating is $20.00 per person, chair seating is $35.00, and table seating with a picnic supper and drinks is $125.00. Table seating must be reserved and purchased in advance. Take a picnic or purchase food available at the concert.

Another perk for Guild members: Advance ticket holders will be admitted through the VIP entrance. The gates will open at 6:30 p.m. No standing in line!

Jackie McGehee purchased the Guest Conductor privilege at the NM Phil's gala and auction, so she will conduct "Stars and Stripes Forever" at the concert.
