

The Inaugural Symposium
Professional Development of Young Musicians

Held after the Competition on Feb. 13, 2016.

The Music Guild of New Mexico and The Jackie McGehee Young Artists' Competition announce a symposium for young musicians, parents, teachers, pianists and music institutions.

Prestigious panel members:

Hyperion Knight, pianist and performer
Carla Lehmeier-Tatum, cellist, performer and teacher
Awadagin Pratt, pianist, performer and teacher

Topics to be discussed include the following:

Preparing for a career in music
Choosing repertoire for competitions and auditions
Preparing concerts and recitals
Affiliating with professional organizations
Applying to music schools; selecting mentor or teacher
Writing resumes and applications
Digital networking
Applying for scholarships

Fine Arts Center B #117 at approximately 2:30 p.m. • Seating is limited
Admission is free

Presented by:

For information contact Jackie McGehee at:

jackiesmcg@gmail.com